

Hopkins Printing Welcomes Marketing Coordinator Alan Waterhouse

Columbus, OH (May 24, 2017) – This summer Hopkins Printing welcomes Case Western Reserve University sophomore Alan Waterhouse as their Marketing Coordinator.

Waterhouse is in his first internship of his undergraduate career. After one year at Case Western Reserve University, Waterhouse has shown success in the highly ranked Case School of Engineering. He maintained a spot on the Dean's High Honors List throughout his first year in the program, while participating in extracurriculars such as the Case Camerata Orchestra, the Case men's volleyball club. Waterhouse has also landed a spot in a mechanical engineering research lab for his sophomore year. Waterhouse excels not only in the problem-solving aspect of engineering, but has also shown high marks as a writer and presenter throughout his academic career; these are both assets Hopkins Printing values when hiring employees.

"We are happy to welcome Alan to the team for this summer. He will be instrumental in continuing our social media efforts and in identifying key prospects for a new vertical we are pursuing." - Roy Waterhouse, President.
