HOPKINS PRINTING NAMED BEST WORKPLACE

COLUMBUS, OHIO (December 17, 2009) - Hopkins Printing is proud to announce it has been named a Best of the Best Workplace in America from the Printing Industries of America. Across the country there were only 21 companies in our field awarded this prestigious honor.

The Printing Industries of America examines over 300 metrics in evaluating employment practices, procedures and perks of working at a firm. These measures range from work-life balance, financial security, health and safety, training and management practices to employee turnover rates. The company's goal is to improve each of these areas on an annual basis.

"We view our employees as our main strength in our organization, so it is rewarding to know how we compare to companies around the country," said Michelle Waterhouse, Director of HR at Hopkins Printing.
